

COMPLAINTS AND INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVING ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT BY THIRD PARTIES

NACUA Webinar
April 6, 2022

Hayley Hanson
Partner, Husch Blackwell

Alexa Lindauer
Associate Director of Investigations, University of Connecticut

Junea Williams-Edmund
Deputy General Counsel, The New School

- J. Wesley Chancey, Josh Whitlock, & Meredith E. Green, “Investigations 101: Setting the Stage for Success” (NACUA 2019 Annual Conference) (see pages 5-7 for a discussion on workplace investigations including third party contractors and vendors)
- Ann H. Franke, “Guess Who’s Coming to Campus? Outsiders, Invited or Not” (NACUA November 2017 CLE Workshop) (see pages 2-17 for an overview of having “outsiders” on campus and legal considerations for hosting outside groups)
- Susan D. Friedfel, Seth F. Gilbertson, Scott Merrill, & Lisa A. Sinclair, “Experience is the Best Teacher: Managing Risk in Internships, Clinical Placements, and Other Experiential Education Programs” (Webinar May 27, 2021) (see pages 13-21 for a quick overview of a PowerPoint detailing circumstances to consider during a student experiential opportunity and investigating complaints during these experiences)
- Scott Bearby, Anil V. Gollahalli, Becca Gose, & Janet P. Judge, “2020 Athletics Update: Challenges in the Covid Era” (Webinar November 16, 2020) (see pages 37-41 for a brief discussion on athletic boosters and how to handle booster misconduct)